

Travel & Expense Policy

Document ID: HR-003 | Effective: January 1, 2026 | Owner: Finance

1. Principles

Employees may claim expenses that are business-related, reasonable, and supported by documentation. Employees are expected to spend company money as carefully as they would their own.

2. Submitting Expenses

2.1 Expenses must be submitted through the ExpenseTrack system within 30 days of the expense date.

2.2 An original receipt is required for any single expense over $25.

2.3 Approved claims are reimbursed within 10 business days of approval.

3. Approval Limits

Each claim must be approved according to its total amount:

Claim amount	Approver
Up to $500	Direct manager
$501 to $5,000	Department Head
Above $5,000	Chief Financial Officer (CFO)

4. Travel

4.1 Flights: Economy class must be booked for flights shorter than 6 hours. Business class is permitted for flights of 6 hours or longer, with VP approval.

4.2 Hotels: The nightly cap is $200. In Tier-1 cities (New York, London, San Francisco and Singapore) the cap is $300 per night.

4.3 Meals: The daily meal allowance is $60 for domestic travel and $80 for international travel. Alcohol is not reimbursable.

5. Client Entertainment

Client entertainment is limited to $100 per person and requires prior approval from the employee's manager.

6. Mileage

Approved use of a personal vehicle for business travel is reimbursed at $0.60 per mile.

7. Late Submissions

Claims submitted 31 to 60 days after the expense date require written justification and Department Head approval. Claims submitted more than 60 days after the expense date will not be reimbursed.

8. Corporate Card

Personal charges made on a corporate card must be repaid within 15 days of the statement date.

9. Items Not Claimable Through ExpenseTrack

The following cannot be claimed through ExpenseTrack: home-office equipment and internet costs (these are covered by the Remote Work Policy, HR-002, Section 5), fines and penalties, and personal items.
